

National Assessment of Educational Progress

Schedule of Assessments

Approved July 31, 2020

The National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP) Authorization Act established the National Assessment Governing Board to set policy for NAEP, including determining the schedule of assessments. (P.L. 107-279)

Under section 104 of the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2021 (P.L. 116-260) (December 27, 2020), Congress provided a waiver for the Governing Board and the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) to reschedule the mandated NAEP reading and mathematics assessments that were previously scheduled to be conducted in the 2021 administration. These assessments will be moved to the 2022 administration and every two years, thereafter. The Governing Board intends to adjust the assessment schedule to reflect changes required in accordance with this action by Congress during a quarterly Board meeting in 2021.
